

PSWAR Announcement: Donation for the New Project

Dear friends,

With this letter we would like to inform you about the new project we are currently developing and for which your contributions are more than welcome.

This autumn, we will be focused on the production of the publication "Passage Through (the Unfinished Monument)" whose finalization is due in January 2009.

The publication is a translation of our unrealized project with the same title developed for Studio K in Kiasma Museum in Helsinki. (For more details on this unrealized project please see: www.pswar.org)

From one side, the aim of this publication is to present the process through which the project and its installation were developed, and how it integrated the theoretical questions we wanted to explore. From the other side, we want to translate the imagined physical experience of this structure into the 'journey'; a 'walk' one will be led through while reading the book. This translation of the physical experience into the two-dimensional space of the book is developed in collaboration with the designers Roma Publication.

Due to certain changes in the funding system in the Netherlands, the opportunities to receive support for this type of projects became very limited. Therefore we decided to inform about this all individuals we collaborated with in the past and invite for a small contribution.

The planned installation consisted of 70 triangles and the structure of the publication will follow this concept. Each triangle will have its separate page and we offer to all of you a chance to contribute by buying one triangle (or more) as a way to finance the printing of the publication. The price for the individual triangle is 50 euros and your name will be placed or not (according to your preferences) in the publication as a thank you. For this contribution you will also receive a copy of the publication once it is published.

For more information about the publication or money transfer please feel free to contact us at pswar@xs4all.nl.

Sincerely Yours,
